Nursery News

Welcome!

We would like to welcome Josh to the nursery team. Josh joins us as our nursery chef. He has recently relocated to Ringwood and has previous experience as a chef from working in pubs and restaurants.

We also welcome Katherine S and Katherine G to our supply team. Katherine S is currently at university studying psychology and hopes to specialise in child psychology in the future. Katherine G has a young family and has experience working at the local primary school.

I'm sure you will join us in welcoming them all to the team!

Update!

As we announced in our last newsletter, Michaela is going on maternity leave at Christmas. We look forward to hearing of the new arrival in the new year!

Charlie, who is currently third in charge at the nursery will be taking on the role of deputy manager whilst Michaela is on maternity leave.

Employee of the Year

Congratulations to Sharon who is this year's winner of 'Employee of the Year'.

Sharon has worked at the nursery from the very early days and is heading into her 17th year with us. Sharon has always been a great asset to the team, her calm, smiley and caring nature makes her a wonderful role model for other members of staff. Well done Sharon! Enjoy your prize!

Christmas Fair

We had a fantastic morning on Saturday 3rd December for our annual Christmas Fair. Although we had to make a few alterations to the usual style of our Christmas Fair, families were still able to enjoy making their reindeer food, Christmas sensory trays and playdough, along with a hot chocolate and mince pie, before visiting our grotto to see Father Christmas.

We would like to thank you all for your ongoing support throughout the year. We hope you all have a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year. We look forward to welcoming you all back in 2023.

From Katie, Michaela and the Team at Ringwood Day Nursery.
